KITCASP Project stakeholder workshop

Key Indicators for Evidence-based Spatial Planning

Establishing priority areas on the applicability of indicators for territorial cohesion, economic competitiveness and sustainable development

Icelandic National Planning Agency – Skipulagsstofnun
Laugavegur 166
Reykjavik

May 30 2013
Agenda:

10:00  Stefan Thors, permanent secretary of the Ministry for the Environment and Natural Resources: Words of welcome.

10:15  Graeme Purves, Lead Project Stakeholder, Scotland: Welcome/The KITCASP project from the side of the stakeholder group/Anticipated outcomes.

10:30  Einar Jónsson, specialist, Icelandic National Planning Agency: On the National planning strategy and data.

10:45  Guðmundar Guðmundsson, specialist, Icelandic Regional Development Institute: On the Icelandic regional development policy and data needs.

11:00  Héðinn Unnsteinsson, specialist, Prime Minister’s Office: On 2020 Moving Iceland Forward initiative, data needs and indicators.

11:15  Break – Coffee / tea – Sandwiches

12:00  Short inputs from researchers on individual case studies of the KITCASP project:
   Ainhoa González, National Institute for Regional and Spatial Analysis: Ireland.
   Hjalti Jóhannesson, University of Akureyri: Iceland.
   Visvaldis Valtenbergs, Vidzeme University of Applied Sciences: Latvia.

13:20  Coffee / tea

13:30  Gavin Daly, KITCASP project lead partner: The KITCASP project and findings/suggestions by the research group so far.

14:00  Discussion.

14:30  End of meeting.